RESOLUTION

Subject: Constitution of District Grievances Committees

No. 42-P&AR(AR)/AR-20/76.—3rd August 1976.—The problem of redress of citizens' grievances and constitution of Grievances Committees in the districts for attending to citizens' grievances on the spot has been considered by the Government. The importance of this matter has been highlighted in a recent Conference of Chief Secretaries held in New Delhi, and presided over by the Prime Minister.

The Government have decided that a District Grievances Committee should be set up in each district which should be a sufficiently high-powered one and that it will be presided over by a Minister/Minister of State having his constituency in the respective district. In a district, where there is no such Minister, the Committee shall be headed by the Divisional Commissioner. The Committee should not, however, take over the normal administration of any Department of Government. The duties and functions of the District Grievances Committees are detailed in the Annexure hereto.

Government attach highest importance to the problem of citizens' grievances and to the redressal thereof. They expect that all public officials should be more responsive to the difficulties and grievances of citizens and should co-operate fully with the District Grievances Committees.

ORDER

Ordered that copies of this Resolution be communicated to all Departments of the State Government and to all Officers concerned for compliance and that the Resolution be published in the "Calcutta Gazette".

ANNEXURE

Where there is no such Minister, it shall be headed by the Divisional Commissioner who should, however, endeavour to attend every such meeting when presided over by Minister. The District Magistrate will be its member-convener.

(b) The seniormost Field Officer of each Directorate, working in the district, will be its member as well as Additional District Magistrates and Sub-divisional Officer.

(c) Depending on the size of and complexity of administration in the district, adequate number of non-official members will be nominated by the Chief Minister for each district, District Magistrates will send their recommendations to Home (PAR)

Department in this regard by forwarding names of two non-official from each of the following categories:

(1) Presidents of the Bar Association,

(2) Eminent Medical Practitioners,

(3) Principals of the Colleges located in the District,

(4) Headmasters/Headmistresses of Schools,

(5) Reputed Women Social Workers,

(6) Progressive farmers.

2. (a) The functions of the District Grievances Committee will be to study various kinds of grievances of citizens, and the action taken thereon by Government officials and to suggest ways and means of redressing them more effectively with the resources available with the public agencies.

It is open for the Committee to discuss and suggest ways and means of redressing grievances more effectively which will be normally carried out by the officer concerned. If the recommendation of the Committee runs counter to the declared policy of the department concerned, the field officer will bring the same to the notice of his Directorate Head and Secretary within a week and the latter will ensure that a decision at an appropriate Government level is taken to resolve the matter.

(c) It will be open for any member of the Committee, non-official or official, to point out any particular public grievances for discussion and to suggest remedies therefor.

(d) The proceedings of the meeting should be circulated to all Departments and Directorates by District Magistrate.

(e) This Committee is not designed to take over normal administration of any department but only to study the public grievances and to suggest progressively more effective measures to remove them. Government, however, expect that all officers would take seriously the grievances and the recommendations of the Committee. The findings of the Committee regarding the action taken by the officer concerned to remove grievances will be a useful indicator to the head of the Directorate to assess the quality of 'public relations' of the Officer concerned.

(f) The Committee will meet at least once in a month.

By order of the Governor,
B. R. GUPTA,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of West Bengal.

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT

NOTIFICATION

No. 3570-S.—29th July 1976.—The Governor is pleased to award the "Dr Harendra Coomar Mookerjee Silver Medal" for the year 1975 to the undermentioned persons for outstanding acts of courage and self-sacrifice:

1. Shri BALARAM CHAKRABORTY,

Sub-Inspector of Police, Calcutta

Statement of the act performed for which the decoration has been awarded

On 7th March 1975 at about 10 in the morning, Shri Balaram Chakraborty, Sub-Inspector of Police, Calcutta, who was residing at the Police Estate, Belghoria, had gone on some personal work to the Joint Municipal Water Reservoir of Kamarhati and Baranagar Municipalities situated on the northern outskirts of the Police Estate. On reaching the bank of the Reservoir, Shri Chakraborty saw two boys about 30 metres away from the bank with their bodies submerged with only a portion of their forearms still sticking out in a desperate bid for survival. On seeing them in such a dangerous condition, Sub-Inspector Chakraborty, who was a good swimmer, lost no time in jumping into the water to save the boys without caring to think of the risk and danger involved. The Reservoir was quite large and deep. Shri Chakraborty swam as fast as he could to reach the boys and was able to bring them back to the shore without any harm to them. These two school boys were later identified as Shriman Siba Prasad Mitra (15) and Shriman Kalu Saha (16) alias Tarun, sons of Sarbashri Kula Ranjan Mitra and Birendra Kumar Saha, respectively, who were Sub-Inspectors of Police living in the same Police Estate. The two boys had gone to the Reservoir with an inflated motor-tube with the idea of learning to swim with its help. But, as bad luck would have it, the inflated tube somehow slipped away from their grasp and was moved away by gusty winds leaving the two boys perilously close to drowning. Had Shri Chakraborty not appeared on the scene at that time and acted with pluck and presence of mind, there was every chance of two precious lives being lost.

In saving the lives of two grown-up boys, namely, Shriman Siba Prasad Mitra (15) and Shriman Kalu Saha (16) from a grave situation, Shri Balaram Chakraborty showed exemplary courage and civic sense at great personal risk and danger.

2. Shri SANTOSH SAHA PODDAR,

Inspector of Police, Calcutta

Statement of the act performed for which the decoration has been awarded

In the early morning on June 23, 1975, at about 5-45 or so, Shriman Sekhar Dey, aged about 17 years, son of Shri Sailendra Nath Dey of 10/1/1 Jagannath Sarkar Lane, Calcutta, while having his bath in the river Hooghly in front of watergate (Fort William) lost his foothold and was being carried away by the strong current. The boy did not know how to swim. Because of the strong current no one amongst the bathers present at the Ghat ventured to rescue the boy. Shri Santosh Saha Poddar, Inspector of the Calcutta Police attached to City Civil Sessions Court, Calcutta, was also taking his bath there. Seeing the alarming situation and knowning what the fate of the boy would be if no help was extended at that very moment, Inspector Saha Poddar rushed forward, without caring for his own life, to rescue the boy. After a heroic effort he succeeded in rescuing the boy from the clutches of inevitable death. All those present there were moved by the courageous and selfless act of the Inspector and were all praise for him.

In rescuing a school boy of tender age from certain death at great personal risk and danger, Inspector Santosh Saha Poddar showed exemplary courage and resolve.

3. Shri ASHIM BHATTACHARJEE,

Assistant Sub-Inspector of Police, Calcutta

Statement of the act performed for which the decoration has been awarded

On 9th March 1975 at about 10-30 in the morning, one Mohd. Pharuk alias Pharuk Mohd., son of Mohd. Yasin of Gas Street, Calcutta, fell, while trying to catch fish, into a pond situated inside the Calcutta Police quarters at Narkeldanga North Road. This was seen by Shriman Goutam Dey, a boy of 14 years and son of Shri Sumit Kumar Dey, a Police Constable of the Detective Department residing in the very same Narkeldanga Police quarters. The boy could not think of doing anything other than raising a cry of alarm. This attracted the attention of Assistant Sub-Inspector of Police Ashim Bhattacharjee, a resident of the said Police quarters, who was returning at that time from the market. Shri Bhattacharjee rushed immediately to the spot leaving aside all his personal belongings. The boy Pharuk Mohd. went down below the surface of water. Shri Bhattacharjee, without any hesitation, dived into the water to rescue the boy. After frantic search it was possible for him to bring Md. Pharuk back to the bank of the pond in an unconscious state. In the meantime certain other residents of the said Police quarters arrived there. Assistant Sub-Inspector Ashim Bhattacharjee rendered first aid himself and thereafter removed the boy to the nearest Hospital (the Pratap Chandra Memorial Homeopathic Hospital).

In saving a helpless boy from certain death at personal risk and danger Assistant Sub-Inspector Ashim Bhattacharjee of Calcutta Police showed exemplary courage and a deep sense of duty.

4. Shri ASHOKE BANERJEE

93 Tollygunge Road, Calcutta

Statement of the act performed for which the decoration has been awarded

On 21st March 1975 a fire broke out in the hut of Shrimati Belarani Dam at 93 Tollygunge Road, Calcutta. It was within a bustee area. The fire had engulfed the entire hut in no time. As a result, two inmates of the hut Shrimati Saili Dam (19 years) and Shrimati Puspa Das alias Pushi (18 years), who were sleeping inside the hut at that time, were trapped. The whole locality was panic-stricken and the people were running helter-skelter in fear. The shrieks of the two helpless girls trapped inside the hut attracted many but none dared to enter the hut to save them. At this critical juncture Shri Ashoke Banerjee alias Bishu, an inmate of the very same bustee, appeared on the scene. Without thinking of the risk and danger involved he immediately entered the burning hut breaking open the tile roof. At great risk to his own life Shri Banerjee rescued the two girls who were in semi-conscious state. The rescued girls had severe burn injuries on their persons and they had to be taken to the Mugneeram Ramcoomar Bangur Hospital for treatment. Shri Banerjee also sustained burn injuries on his face and in other parts of his body. His heroic deed received high praise from the members of the public. [This refers to section 'U' (Tollygunge) Case No. 245, dated 21st March 1975 started under sections 436/307, I.P.C. The miscreant guilty of setting fire in this case has since been arrested.]

Shri Ashoke Banerjee displayed exemplary courage and gallantry to save two girls from sure death at great personal risk and danger.

5. Shrimati ANANDAMOYEE SARKAR (KUNDU),

daughter of Shri Ranjit Sarkar, 27 Netaji Subhas Avenue, Serampore, Hooghly

Statement of the act performed for which the decoration has been awarded

On June 12, 1975, one Shrimati Madhuri De (21), daughter of Shri Patit Paban De of 9 Auddy Lane, Serampore, went to the matinee show of a picture at the Serampore Talkies. During the interval she came out of the Hall. Suddenly it was noticed that the Sari which Sm. De was wearing had caught fire. Sm. De was naturally in panic and very much puzzled. All those who were present were also flabbergasted not knowing what to do in that situation. None came forward to help her. At this critical time, Shrimati Anandamoyee Sarkar (Kundu), daughter of Shri Ranjit Sarkar, Addy Lane, Serampore, who was also a spectator at that very show, appeared on the scene and rushed, without caring for her own life and safety, towards Shrimati De. She lost no time in taking off the burning clothes from Shrimati De's body and throwing them away. She then covered Sm. De with a portion of her own Sari. Shrimati Sarkar showed extraordinary presence of mind and acted courageously to save a precious life. Sm. De received some burn injuries on her body. Sm. Sarkar had also to sacrifice some portion of her hair and to experience some fire touches. Later, it was detected that the accident was due to a burning piece of paper carelessly thrown by a smoker after lighting his cigarette.

In saving the life of a young girl from the fury of fire at great personal risk and danger, Shrimati Anandamoyee Sarkar, herself a young girl, displayed conspicuous valour, outstanding courage and rare presence of mind.

(b) whether or not the said period shall be treated as a period spent on duty.

(2) Where the authority competent to order reinstatement is of opinion that the member of the Service who had been dismissed, removed or compulsorily retired has been fully exonerated, the member of the Service shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (6), be paid the full pay and allowances to which he would have been entitled had he not been dismissed, removed or compulsorily retired or suspended prior to such dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement, as the case may be:

Provided that where such authority is of opinion that the termination of the proceedings instituted against the member of the Service had been delayed due to reasons directly attributable to the member of the Service, it may, after giving him an opportunity to make his representation and after considering the representation, if any, submitted by him, direct, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that the member of the Service shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (7), be paid for the period of such delay only such proportion of such pay and allowances as it may determine.

(3) In a case falling under sub-rule (2), the period of absence from duty including the period of suspension preceding dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement, as the case may be, shall be treated as a period spent on duty for all purposes.

(4) In cases other than those covered by sub-rule (2) [including cases where the order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service is set aside by the appellate or reviewing authority solely on the ground of non-compliance with the requirements of clause (2) of article 311 of the Constitution and no further inquiry is proposed to be held], the member of the Service, shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rules (6) and (7), be paid such proportion of the full pay and allowances to which he would have been entitled had he not been dismissed, removed or compulsorily retired or suspended prior to such dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement, as the case may be, as the authority competent to order reinstatement may determine, after giving notice to the member of the Service of the quantum proposed and after considering the representation, if any, submitted by him in that connection within such period as may be specified in the notice:

Provided that any payment under this sub-rule to a member of the Service shall be restricted to a period of three years immediately preceding the date on which orders for reinstatement of such member of the Service and passed by the appellate authority or reviewing authority, or immediately preceding the date of retirement under the All India Services (Death-cum-Retirement Benefits) Rules, 1958, of such member of the Service, as the case may be.

(5) In a case falling under sub-rule (4), the period of absence from duty including the period of suspension preceding his dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement, as the case may be, shall not be treated as a period spent on duty, unless the authority competent to order reinstatement specifically directs that it shall be so treated for any specified purpose:

Provided that if the member of the Service so desires such authority may direct that the period of absence from duty including the period of suspension preceding his dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement, as the case may be, shall be converted into leave of any kind due and admissible to the member of the Service.

(7) The proportion of the full pay and allowances determined under the proviso to sub-rule (2) or under sub-rule (4) shall neither be equal to full pay and allowances nor shall it be less than the subsistence allowance and other allowances admissible under rule 4.

(8) Any payment made under this rule to a member of the Service on his reinstatement shall be subject to adjustment of the amount, if any, earned by him through an employment during the period between the date of removal, dismissal, or compulsory retirement, as the case may be, and the date of reinstatement. Where the pay and allowances admissible under this rule are equal to or less than the amounts earned during the employment elsewhere, nothing shall be paid to the member of the Service.

5A. Admissibility of pay and allowances and treatment of service on reinstatement where dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement is set aside by a court of law: (1) Where the dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement of a member of the Service is set aside by a court of law and such member is reinstated without holding any further inquiry, the period of absence from duty shall be regularised and the member of the Service shall be paid pay and allowances in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (2) or (3) subject to the directions, if any, of the court.

(2) (i) Where the dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement of a member of the Service is set aside by a court of law solely on the ground of non-compliance with the requirements of clause (2) of article 311 of the Constitution, and where he is not exonerated on merits, the member of the Service shall be paid such proportion of the full pay and allowances to which he would have been entitled had he not been dismissed, removed or compulsorily retired, or suspended prior to such dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement as the case may be, as the authority competent to order reinstatement may determine, after giving notice to the member of the Service of the quantum proposed and after considering the representation, if any, submitted by him, in that connection, within such period as may be specified in the notice:

Provided that any payment under this sub-rule to a member of the Service shall neither be equal to full pay and allowances nor less than the subsistence allowance and other allowances admissible under rule 4, as the case may be:

Provided further that such payment shall be restricted to a period of three years immediately preceding the date on which the judgment of the court was passed or the date of retirement under the All India Services (Death-cum-Retirement Benefits) Rules, 1958, of such member of the service, as the case may be.

(ii) The period intervening between the date of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement including the period of suspension preceding such dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement, as the case may be, and the date of judgment of the court of law shall be regularised in accordance with the provisions contained in sub-rule (5) of rule 5.

(3) If the dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement of a member of the Service is set aside by the court on the merits of the case, the period intervening between the date of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement including the period of suspension preceding such dismiccal, removal or compulsory retirement, as the case may be, and the date of reinstatement shall be treated as duty for all purposes and he shall be paid full pay and allowances for the period to which he would have been entitled had he not been dismissed, removed or compulsorily, retired or suspended prior to such dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement, as the case may be.

(4) The payment of allowances under sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (3) shall be subject to all other conditions under which such allowances are admissible.

(5) Any payment made under this rule to a member of the Service on his reinstatement shall be subject to adjustment of the amount, if any, earned by him through an employment during the period between the date of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and the date of reinstatement. Where the pay and allowances admissible under this rule are equal to or less than those earned during the employment elsewhere, nothing shall be paid to the member of the Service.

5B. Admissibility of pay and allowances and treatment of service on reinstatement after suspension: (1) When a member of the Service under suspension is reinstated or would have been so reinstated but for his retirement under the All India Services (Death-cum-Retirement Benefits) Rules, 1958, while under suspension, the authority competent to order reinstatement shall consider and made a specific order—

(a) regarding the pay and allowances to be paid to the member of the Service for the period of suspension ending with reinstatement or the date of his retirement on superannuation, as the case may be; and

(b) whether or not the said period shall be treated as a period spent on duty.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 4, where a member of the Service under suspension dies before the disciplinary or court proceedings instituted against him are concluded, the period between the date of suspension and the date of death shall be treated as duty for all purposes and his family shall be paid the full pay and allowances for that period to which he would have been entitled had he not been suspended, subject to adjustment in respect of subsistence allowance and other allowances already paid.

(3) Where the authority competent to order reinstatement is of the opinion that the suspension was wholly unjustified, the member of the Service shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (8), be paid the full pay and allowances to which he would have been entitled had he not been suspended, subject to adjustment in respect of subsistence allowance and other allowances already paid:

Provided that where such authority is of the opinion that the termination of the proceedings instituted against the member of the Service had been delayed due to reasons directly attributable to the member of the Service, it may, after giving him an opportunity to make his representation and after considering the representation, if any, submitted by him, direct, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that the member of the Service shall be paid for the period of such delay only such proportion of such pay and allowances as it may determine.

(4) In a case falling under sub-rule (3) the period of suspension shall be treated as a period spent on duty for all purposes.

(5) In cases other than those falling under sub-rules (2) and (3), the member of the Service shall subject to the provisions of sub-rules (8) and (9) be paid such proportion of the full pay and allowances to which he would have been entitled had he not been suspended, as the authority competent to order reinstatement may determine, after giving notice to the member of the Service of the quantum proposed and after considering the representation, if any, submitted by him in that connection within such period as may be specified in the notice.

(6) Where suspension is revoked pending finalisation of the disciplinary proceedings or proceedings in a court any order passed under sub-rule (1) before the conclusion of the proceedings against the member of the Service shall be reviewed on its own motion after the conclusion of the proceedings by the authority mentioned in sub-rule (1) who shall make an order in accordance with the provisions contained in sub-rule (3) or sub-rule (5), as the case may be.

(7) In a case falling under sub-rule (5) the period of suspension shall not be treated as a period spent on duty, unless the authority competent to order reinstatement specifically directs that it shall be so treated for any specified purpose:

Provided that if the member of the Service so desires such authority may order that the period of suspension shall be converted into leave of any kind due and admissible to the member of the Service.

(8) The payment of allowances under sub-rule (2), sub-rule (3) or sub-rule (5) shall be subject to all other conditions under which such allowances are admissible.

(9) The proportion of the full pay and allowances determined under the proviso to sub-rule (3) or under sub-rule (5) shall neither be equal to full pay and allowances nor shall it be less than the subsistence allowance and other allowances admissible under rule 4.
